Elevator Blues

Aaron Ross

Sayonara's are singing their doom
Whispered secrets will be known to us soon
When the eyes left the blood is made new
My father fought this war for you

For you? For you

Mayhem, mayhem your lips smell like wine
These piss drunk roses won't fill your cluttered mind
Ash is captured in the place where you grew
My father fought this war for you.

For you? For you
For you? For you

What is this holy work that exists in my spine
Surely this is wonderment By the purest of desire
Alienate deliverance one could never undo
My father fought this war for you

For you?

Then without time
Portal out of your mind
You're out of your mind
You?re holding the signs
Stop lights don't rewind
Now the memories walk like someone from the underworld

Science won't speak your name
Solitude's for the fame
You're off of the vein
So do what you ask
This gene pool is swimming with sharks
And you will be the last one to know you have been there

Got a one way ticket nowhere
And I'm rising fast to get there
Love is a road but life's no highway

I'm glad to know I'm running sideways

I?ll thank god I'll play the victim
After all it's the only system
Tragic story's the one we're living
We forgot that the gift's been given

(Cello stuff)

Just across your mind's true eye
Lies a place where you won't draw the line
Some say mystery must be defined
I still don't know where to hide

Give a little piece of the pie
We would all like to be refined

Give a little piece of the pie
We would all like to be refined

Ride on
Ride on
Ride on
Ride on
We love the elevator blues

Ride on
Ride on
Ride on
Ride on

Give a little piece of the pie

Give a little piece of the pie

Ride on
Ride on
Ride on
Ride on

Wonder wonderful world

God done made you

Wonder wonderful world
God done made you

Wonder wonderful world
God done made you

Wonder wonderful world
God done made you well

Wonder wonderful world
God done made you

Wonder wonderful world
God done made you

Wonder wonderful world
God done made you well

God done made you well

God done made you well?
