Hurt In Love

Dannii Minogue

Innocent in the middle of every good time and bad
It's where you are, you're never on your own
Never all alone
Always been passing, seconds, minutes
But I'm wondering if your heart is in it
I am questioning 'What ya doing here?'
Tell me ....
Did you love it up?
Did you give it up?
Are you crying out for more?
Did you hold it back like you've been hurt in love before?
Did you give it up?
Did you get it up?
Are you crying out for more?
Did you hold it back like you've been hurt in love before?
yeah, oooh, yeah, oooh
yeah, oooh, yeah, oooh
Coming and going
Lost it easy
Never standing, still lonely
Not to feel me, reaching out for you
Where you running to?
Won't you tell me?
Only you tell me
Did you love it up?
Did you give it up?
Are you crying out for more?

Did you hold it back like you've been hurt in love before?
Did you give it up?
Did you get it up?
Are you crying out for more?
Did you hold it back like you've been hurt in love before?
yeah, oooh, yeah, oooh
Take my hand through the world I will lead you
If you wanna be loved then you gotta love me
Take my hand through my heart I won't want you
Cos you know there's one thing that matters in the end
The end, the end ... the end ...

The end ... the end ... the end ... In the end ...
Did you love it up?
Did you feel it up?
Are you crying out for more?
Did you hold it back like you've been hurt in love before?
Did you give it up?
Did you get it up?
Are you crying out for more?
Did you hold it back like you've been hurt in love before?
[x2]Take my hand through the world I will lead you
If you wanna be loved then you gotta love me
Take my hand through my heart I won't want you
Cos you know there's one thing that matters in the end
The end, the end ... in the end ..
