

Powerful (feat. Jussie Smollett and Alicia Keys)

Empire Cast

People been talking about it,
We won't just stand here in silence.
Can't stop the fire from rising,
From rising.
Ooh Ooh.

People don't you be afraid,
So many innocents slain.
This is an era for change,
Change.

And Malcolm's probably turning in his grave, aye, ave, ave.

Every shade was beautifully made,

And Powerful.
There's so much strength in you and me.
Powerful,
A breathe away from victory.

I matter,
You matter.
We matter, All.

I see a colorful future,
Where skin don't define any human.
And stars are the only thing shooting,
Shooting.
Ooh. Ooh.

Mothers that bury their child,
How can we sit there and hide.
Change comes when all take a stand now.
Stand up,
Stand up.

Martin's speech still echoes in my brain.

Every shade was beautifully made.

And Powerful.
There's so much strength in you and me.
Powerful,
A breathe away from victory.

I matter,
You matter.
We matter, All. Powerful. Oh Oh Ooooh Powerful.

There's so much strength in you and me,
Powerful.
A breathe away from victory.

I matter,
You matter.
We matter, All. Powerful.
