The Crossroads

Bain Wolfkind

Take a trip behind the wheel to the crossroads
This is where your journey ends at the crossroads
This is where worlds collide at the crossroads
This is where Jesus died at the crossroads
The suits were hanging by their necks at the crossroads
The blood is splashing on the decks at the crossroads
You'll lose your heart every time at the crossroads
It costs a nickle and a dime to the crossroads
No salvation to be seen at the crossroads
No more future and no dreams at the crossroadsï»¿
