

When the Prodigal Comes Home

Tribute Quartet

WHEN THE PRODIGAL COMES HOME

VERSE ONE

In the mud and mire behind the fences
When you finally came to your senses
You said, "Even the servants in my father's house
Are better off than I am now"
You didn't think he'd take you in Much less call you son again
Instead you found a mercy so beautiful and wild
That it looks beyond the foolishness to seek a wayward child

CHORUS

There is no condemnation
Just a Father who's been waiting
To put His arms around you
Oh, the anticipation
The great celebration
For you were lost but now he's found you
There is only rejoicing and a tender kindness shown
When the prodigal comes home

VERSE TWO

Rehearsing words to beg him for forgiveness
Then down the road you saw him in the distance
As he ran to meet you face to face
And wrapped you in his strong embrace
The acceptance in his eyes
Made you finally realize
He will always love you, you will always be his son
No matter where you've wandered, no matter what you've done

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE

And to every child of God
Who's somehow lost their way
Even now He's longing for you
Can you hear Him say...

REPEAT CHORUS

words and music by Lee Black

Lyrics Submitted by Lee

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>