

Imaginary

Eli T.

Imaginary...Imaginary...Gravity from your fellow men will tear you down
If they can, yes it can
Takes more than a lifetime
To dry your fears in the airI realise we compromise and fill our lives with empty finds
Then they tell to be someone we think we canI tried it, I faked it
I tried to conceal it
I tried to believe me
I tried not to break
But it hurt me to do it
To lie to myselfI... don't want to be imaginary.
Imaginary
To me
I... don't want to be...
Imaginary
To meThere was once I was lonely,
A little voice told me
I could be
A little more a little more like somebody - anybody - but me.I saw a little change but never heard nobody
But in the mirror I could see what was left of meI tried it, I faked it
I tried to conceal it
Tried to believe me
I tried not to break
But it hurt me to do it
To lie to myselfI... don't want to be imaginary (Imaginary)
Imaginary yeah (Imaginary to me)
I....don't want to be (I don't want to be)
Imaginary
Yeah (Imaginary to me)Imaginary (Imaginary)
Imaginary
To me
I don't want to be
Imaginary
To me (To me)Gravity from your fellow men will tear you down if they can Yes they can.
