Wrong End

Kamchatka

How long
will it take 'til we do something 'bout this?
It can't be we are supposed to accept this,
though it seems most people do.
And those who don't
who put their trust in greater powers
by bitterness will be devoured
when they don't come through.Ever turning.
Conscience burning.
Never learning
when it's time.Can't we all feel the taste
of everythings meaninglessness
in a collective loneliness
such as this?
What a waste.
Howcome we'd end up in this state?
Our inability to communicate?
We all have opinions about what it is.Ever turning.
Conscience burning.
Never learning
when it's time.
