Shoo Fly

Jason Steele

Girl I know you wanna take all that I own
You wanna take all that I?ve earned
Want to erase our happy home
Wanna break my family
Wanna wear my diamond rings
Put along the nice things he buys for me
Next to him in my bed you wanna sleep
I bet you even wish you could sing
But you need to know
You gon? have to let go
You won?t ever be me
And he won?t ever be yours
What you once had
Was a thing of the past
You may have being his first
But baby girl I?m his last
So shoo fly he?s mine for the last time
Don?t make me say it don?t more
Damn girl move on be gone so long get going
You?ll hurt your feelings girl you better let go
So shoo fly he?s mine for the last time
Don?t make me say it don?t more
Damn girl move on be gone so long get going
I?m now the one baby girl act like you know

And girl I know you say that ain?t the case
Right in his face you say so fake
That you changed then flipped the page
And use his son to cause a scene
Calling him and me out of names
Having your momma calling and do the same
Kicking and screaming cause you want your way
One day your ?. gon? get your ass beat
But you need to know
You gon? have to let go
You won?t ever be me
And he won?t ever be yours
What you once had
Was a thing of the past

You may have being his first
But baby girl I?m his last
So shoo fly he?s mine for the last time
Don?t make me say it don?t more
Damn girl move on be gone so long get going
You?ll hurt your feelings girl you better let go
So shoo fly he?s mine for the last time
Don?t make me say it don?t more
Damn girl move on be gone so long get going
I?m now the one baby girl act like you know
