

There Will Be A Light

Ben Harper And The Blind Boys Of Alabama

I wish we could live forever
Then melt into the sun, melt into the sun
Time is gonna change you
Once it gets you on the run, gets you on the run
There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light
There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light
I've been running ever since
Ever since I was a child
Some call it free
And some call it wild
There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light

There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light
Let the warmth of my love
Dry away all your tears
Fear not for I am with you
I will fear not, fear not with you here
There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light
There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light
There will be, there will be
There will be a light, there will be a light
