Foma

Trills

Lies
Light ahead, is it something that I can cling to?
Is it something to help this life sustain?
See no pain
Is it just another train?Life ahead, is it something that I can count on?
Is it something to keep the spirit raised?
Seize my days
Is it just another phase?Innocence left us long ago, lines are blurred on Everything that I've been toldFoma, foma, fomaJesus Christ, is He someone you put faith in?
Is He someone to wear your crown of thorns?
Bear your wrongs
Is He just another God?Sincerity left us long ago
Stay in line and do exactly what you're toldFoma, foma, foma
Lies, see through your liesSee the sign, is it something you would bleed for?
Is it something that helps
To feed your soul with a sense of hope?
Just stay in line and do exactly what you're toldFoma, foma, foma
Lies, see your lies
