Queen

Sasquatch

I was born a gypsy, and I roam over time
They told me I would always be the finest, but that thought fade away from my mind
Well the clock is always tickin' and I know you're used to lies
And I think it's shame, you lie about your name, and a river can't wash away the timeYou've got me down on my knees
Girl, why can't you just leave me be?Picking up the pieces of a lie so divine
Sometimes I think I'm really going out of my mind
Oh well, all around the fortress, there are enemies of the king
And I think it's so sad, they don't understand that the evil one is the queenYou've got me down on my knees
Girl, why can't you just leave me be?Now my ship is sinking and I hardly think I'll survive
But it was a pleasure knowing you, baby, for the first time I feel I'm aliveYou've got me down on my knees
Girl, why can't you just leave me be?
No...
