New Dawn Coming

Cemetary

there's a new dawn coming coming down in flames
there's a new thought burning and it's fire can't be tamed an illusion shattered cuts its way inside
reduced to nothing
you're doomed within your liecome on in this nightmare's just for you so feel no shame it's all yours for you to breath - for you to live there is no present but the past your creation - watch it burnthere's a new seed growing growing in their minds there's new hate breeding a dagger from behind
now the new word echoes a word set in stone
did anyone cry when sympathy died alone?second coming yet its all the same
the lies are ruling
masters of the game
forever fallen
puppet on a string
born the loser
soon the bells of death will ring
