Highway to Nowhere

Drake Bell

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I'm tired of all your excuses I'm tired of all your lies Your filthy schemes and abuses Ooh, I've finally grown wise Got tired of chasin' it down Baby it's better that I'm not around And I'm on the highway to nowhere Tryin' to get by without you I don't know why it took me so long to Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh Wind up back at nowhere with you Wind up back at nowhere Wind up back at nowhere with you It's time for a little payback It's time for a little respect You can't just rewind and playback All of the shit that you wrecked And I'm on the highway to nowhere Tryin' to get by without you I don't know why it took me so long to Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh Wind up back at nowhere with you Wind up back at nowhere Wind up back at nowhere with you And I'm on the highway to nowhere Tryin' to get by without you I don't know why it took me so long to Wind up back at nowhere with you Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh yeah Wind up back at nowhere Wind up back at nowhere with you Wind up back at nowhere with you

Wind up back at nowhere with you

Back at nowhere, nowhere, wind up back with you [x4]

We are awesome
