

Call Me

Mat Kearney

Call me anything but lonely through a stone disown me
Let'em know I'll never, ever be the same
'Cause they all head on home in the morning
Get on gone when it's storming
Let'em know I'll never kiss it all away When the morning sun comes you'll know I didn't run
'Cause when the rain came it still never changed
Through the laughter and the tears
The pain and my fears I'll stay, I'll wait right here La, da, da
La, da, da
La, da, da Call me anything but lonely through a stone disown me
Let'em know I'll never, ever be the same
'Cause they all head on home in the morning
Get on gone when it's storming
Let'em know I'll never kiss it all away When the morning sun comes you'll know I didn't run
'Cause when the rain came it still never changed
Through the laughter and the tears
The pain and my fears I'll stay, I'll wait right here These scars upon my sleeve won't get the best of me
You've had yours and I've had my own defeats
This heart upon your sleeve I'll tread gently
But I won't rush in and run away on a breeze When the morning sun comes you'll know I didn't run
'Cause when the rain came it still never changed
Through the laughter and the tears
The pain and my fears I'll stay, I'll wait right here La, da, da
La, da, da
La, da, da

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>