

Ordinary

DempseyRollBoy

Listen I'm alone, fuck the whole world scares me
 Girl I'm holding on by a thread I'm barely getting through the days cause I'm treated unfairly
 I'm the farthest thing from ordinary
Listen I'm alone, fuck the whole world scares me
 Girl I'm holding on by a thread I'm barely
 getting through the days cause I'm treated unfairly
 I'm the farthest thing from ordinary

The person looking back at me is the one that I need help again
 I tried making friends but in the end I'm by myself again
 I rather be invisible instead of overwhelming them I thought of ending everything instead of fucking telling them that I'm simply dead already, psychopath, my head ain't steady, sick of having suicidal thoughts I got more than plenty Why can't I be ordinary Being me is sort of scary cause I gotta deal with burdens that I was born to carry stop for a second, look at the time, I can feel it slip away from me I said on my darkest days that I'm afraid and it's ok to be but now when I took at myself why the hell am I afraid of me I'm going for away to a distant place ill find a way to leave ill open my chest and let you see what is inside you'll see so many paranormal things you can't describe there's monsters living in me that are eating me alive I'm turning into someone I don't even recognize

 Who I am (who I am) Girl god damn (girl god damn) what the fuck is wrong with me I'm sorry, I don't understand they can hate on me, be shady, but my fate is in my hands
 They can hate on me but baby they ain't messing up my plans BRB my vibe is rainy, high as fuck a new Mercedes (Bitch the fuck is (idfk) Always dress like 50's 80's (idfk)

I'm in touch with the creators
I've already met our maker
I'm a sinner not your savior Taking off, I'll see you later

I'm holding it down for the loners and people that know that they'll never fit in and since the beginning I've been an anomaly living a life full of sin Don't be afraid to go searching your soul because freedom's discovered within the truth of the matter is that nothing matters I spit to inspire the kids

There's too many prisons and too many villains Too many victims and too many flaws Too much religion and too much division too much positions and too many guards they want me to fail, but ima prevail, so fuck all the doubters, I'm beating the odds the facts are unveiled and what they entail, is everything we know (is) just a facade Down For the count, I'm about amount, to a clown full of doubt, with a frown to the ground, What if I would've frowned and without my sound, I wouldn't be where shit just a bunch of pounds of flesh and bones, only heaven knows everyday that I wake is a stepping stone

Take, Take what you can it's game of thrones Take, Take what you can don't bitch and moan

I took my life on a different road, I want love and peace not cars and clothes My secrets they better stay disclosed, I'm strange and I can't change that's a know(Got a twisted mind, but I'm wicked with the words, and I simplify what I write in a verse

I'll be mystified when I'm riding in a hearse, Don't sympathize when I die in the dirt I'm alright but I might wanna listen, I fight fright with a mic from a distance

My whole lifetime I've been a misfit, once it's over I'm gonna miss it Agnostic type not a Christian, We cannot define our existence I'm narcotic, I'm inefficient, I'm psychotic, I'm insufficient (thank you sktv evolution)

Listen I'm alone, fuck the whole world scares me
Girl I'm holding on by a thread I'm barely
getting through the days cause I'm treated unfairly
I'm the farthest thing from ordinary
Listen I'm alone, fuck the whole world scares me
girl I'm holding on by a thread I'm barely
getting through the days cause I'm treated unfairly
I'm the farthest thing from ordinary
