

Lie in the Sound

Trespassers William

I love you more than I should
So much more than is good for me
More than is good Oh, the timing is cruel
Oh, I need and don't want to need
More than I should I am falling, say my name
And I'll lie in the sound
What is love but whatever
My heart needs a round Oh, my sheet is so thin
So I say I can't sleep because It's so very cold But I know what I need
And if you were just near to me
Would you go? I am falling, say my name
And I'll lie in the sound
What is love but whatever
My heart needs a round I am falling, say my name
And I'll lie in the sound
What is love but whatever
My heart needs a round
And it needs you too much now
