

Only Sky (feat. Christian Burns)

Conjure One

Tried so hard to cut you out
Like a piece of paper
The weight of carrying this around
Is heavy on my shoulder
And all this time
On different lines
Worlds away
You are falling Open sky
I'd risk my life just to feel
Anything but nothing
But what I want is what is real
My head and heart are fighting
And all this time
On different lines
Worlds away
You are falling Now looking down from high above
But you're too far for me to touch
You can't see me
Only sky And I wish that you were just like god
Don't leave me losing in between
You can't see me
Only sky
Only sky
I'm here all-alone
Where time is frozen still
Where were you when I need you most
Cause the clouds are closing in Now looking down from high above
But you're too far for me to touch
You can't see me
Only sky
And I wish that you were just like god
Don't leave me losing in between
You can't see me
Only sky Only sky
Only sky
Only sky
