

Solitary Moon

Shirley Horn

When the night
Is wrapped around us
And the dawn might come too soon
When the only light
That's found us
Is the solitary moon
When the songbird in the willow
Sings a soft and soulful tune
Once again
You share my pillow
Making love to me
Tenderly
Here, as we share
The silent moon
As it slowly sails above us
In it's solitary flight
Seems the moon
Must surely love us
As it bathes us in it's light
Say that we can spent the day
Through a sunlit afternoon
Let your kisses say
You'll stay here
And make love to me
Tenderly
Here, as we share
The silent moon.

Songwriters

ALAN BERGMAN, MARILYN BERGMAN, JOHNNY MANDEL
Published by
Lyrics © Peermusic Publishing, Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Universal Music Publishing Group
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>