So Many Things

City High

I don't understand why you had to go
I guess I'll never know
An' life seems so hard since you went your way
There's still some things I've got to say
Even though I'm all alone
I know you want me to be strong
Standin' tall amidst the rain
Without you life just ain't the same
And there are so many things I'd like to ask you
And there are so many things I still don't know
And there are so many things I'd like to ask you
Still, yet so many things that I will never know
If there was anyway I could see your face again
I'd give my own life, only you can ease my pain, yeah
And if I could turn back the hands of time
It would take me just a moment to tell you what's on my mind
Even though I'm all alone
I know you want me to be strong
Standin' tall amidst the rain
Without you life just ain't the same
And there are so many things I'd like to ask you
And there are so many things I still don't know
And there are so many things I'd like to ask you
Still, yet so many things that I will never know
Sometimes I sit and wonder
"Will we ever meet again?"
Oh, but wherever life may lead you
You'll always have a friend in need, oh
