Unbreakable

Framing Hanley

Things haven't always been so black and white. You and I, we've had our fights.
Thank you for putting up with me.
How you managed that I'll never quite get. All these questions just race around my head.
Will you give me forever?
I stand here tonight. I'll be unbreakable for you.
I'll do the unthinkable for you.
Through bad times and happiness, I'm always at my very best by your side.
I'll be invincible with you.
We will be unbreakable. We will be unbreakable
I think my heart stopped when you walked through that door; with an elegance I'd never seen before.
Thank you, I can't believe you stuck with me.
How you managed that I'll never understand.
All I know is your hand is in my hand.
I stand here tonight. I'll be unbreakable for you.
I'll do the unthinkable for you.
Through bad times and happiness, I'm always at my very best by your side.
I'll be invincible with you.
We will be unbreakable. We will be unbreakable
I guess what I'm trying to say is I searched so long...
And it finally led to this day. This day.
I hope that it's all that you dreamed...for so long.
I'm unbreakable when you're here with me.
Stay here tonight.
Stay here tonight.
Stay here tonight,
I'll be unbreakable.
I will be unbreakable for you
