

Holes in the Floor of Heaven

Steve Wariner

One day shy of eight years old
Grandma passed away
I was a broken hearted little boy
Blowing out that birthday cake How I cried when the sky let go
With a cold and lonesome rain
Momma smiled, said, "Don't be sad child
Grandma's watchin' you today" 'Cause there's holes in the floor of Heaven
And her tears are pourin' down
That's how you know she's watchin'
Wishin' she could be here now And sometimes if you're lonely
Just remember she can see
There's holes in the floor of Heaven
And she's watchin' over you and me Seasons come and seasons go
Nothin' stays the same
I grew up, fell in love
Met a girl who took my name Year by year we made a life
In this sleepy little town
I thought we'd grow old together
Lord I sure do miss her now But there's holes in the floor of Heaven
And her tears are pourin' down
That's how I know she's watchin'
Wishin' she could be here now And sometimes when I'm lonely
I remember she can see
There's holes in the floor of Heaven
And she's watchin' over you and me Well my little girl is 23
I walk her down the aisle
It's a shame her mom can't be here now
To see her lovely smile They throw the rice, I catch her eye
As the rain starts comin' down
She takes my hand says, "Daddy don't be sad
'Cause I know Momma's watchin' now" And there's holes in the floor of Heaven
And her tears are pourin' down
That's how you know she's watchin'
Wishin' she could be here now And sometimes when I'm lonely
I remember she can see
Yes, there's holes in the floor of Heaven
And she's watchin' over you and me Watchin' over you and me
Watchin' over you and me
Watchin' over you and me
