Prize Possession

Carol Ann Jones

Ohh, baby, baby
Come on, sugar
Sanctuary is what you are to me, yeah
No dictionary can find the words to say
How much I love you
Hallelujah
It's 'bout time I found someone whose gonna love me
For me, hey Miss Beloved
Since you come into my life and unlocked the door to my heart
I've been free
Many are called, but the chosen are few, yeah
Said there's so few
That's why I'm so happy, woman
To be lying next to you, yeah
Prize possession
You're my movie star, my near or far, my everything
You are my prize possession
You are my cozy nights, my fireplace, my sweet melodies
You put the light at the end of my tunnel
Yes, you did
And you did not let me die
When it looks like life was gettin' away from me, yeah
You loved and closed, and you fed me woman
I remember
Momma, you're my best friend, I love you
And woman you've got to know you're my
Prize possession
Said you are my movie star, my near or far, my Christmas carol
Prize possession
You are my cozy nights, and fireplace, my sweet melody
Lady April
Let your rain fall down
It's much cozier when it's wet
We can cuddle up together
Come on, sugar
We can weather any storm
A family that prays together, will stay together
Prize possession
