Lover Boy

Rich Homie Quan

I'll tell you from the start
He's gonna break your heart
You can't stop the lover boy
You can't stop the lover boy
He's gonna tell you lies
But you won't realize
Because you can't stop the lover boy
You can't stop the lover boy
He's got a thing in his head
It's from a book he's read
It's got a funny title
It tells you how to be vital
He took a lot of time
Over every line
Because it's guaranteed
To satisfy
(He's a lover boy)
He's gonna knock 'em dead
(He treats you like a toy)
The boy got that book read
You can't stop the lover boy
(Lover boy, you never)
You can't stop the lover boy
(Lover boy, you never)
Right from the clothes he wears
The way he combs his hair
He can't stop him now because he knows all the tricks
He used to have a problem but he got it fixed
(Got it fixed)
He took a small apartment
And he could see from his window
All the lights in the street glow
And there's a club on the corner
And tonight he will go there
To find a new affair
So all you ladies beware
He's got to have a good time in the city
He's got to have a good time every night

He's gonna love 'em and leave 'em and cheat and deceive
He's gonna show 'em who's wrong and who's right
