

Just as Long as We Have Love

The Spinners

We may not have a mansion on the hill minks coats and diamonds by the score but the things we have no man could ever take it
Just the two of us
Now who could ask for more...

But as long as I have you, there's no mistaking that the world is ours to do most anything...
