False Start

Sparta

The plane is intact
From the front to the back
I was left now
Is waiting for youSo do what you can
For blood and feelin'And it's alright
Yeah, it is alright
All that's left is execution now
With us playing the shadows of the soundBefore the moment to pass
Think more so that hearts to the souls
All the powers and it loses all control
We're waiting for youI'm coming cold it's so much than reach
And it's alright, alright, alright
We get on whether it is falling at your feet
Beg your conscience but it's alright, alright, alrightAnd then we get on with this life
More fast and find the place in time
Before the moment to last
Let's feel runnin' down awayFalse start but my men under doesn't care
We're waiting for youComin', comin', it's so much than reach
And it's alright, alright, alright
We get on whether it is falling at your feet
Beg your conscience but it's alright, alright, alrightThe plane is intact
From the front to the back
All that's left now
Is waiting for youSo do what you can
For blood and feelin'All that's left now
Is waiting for youCome on, come on it's so much than reach
And it's alright, alright, alright
We get on whether it is falling at your feet
Beg your conscience but it's alright, alright, alrightIt's alright
