

Psycho Man

Black Sabbath

The midnight hour approaches
The killing chill takes over him
His victims will not know when he appears
The lust of death's possession
Will overtake his psycho mind
He won't be happy till he smells the fear
He's the Angel of Death
(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)
Angel of Death
(Looking for a victim wherever he can)
He's the Angel of Death
(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)
Angel of Death
(He's a killer)
Addicted to their madness
The taste of death that lives within
He loves it when he tastes their final breath
Stalking gives him pleasure
Killing is the final act
He takes no pity with his lust for death
He's the Angel of Death
(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)
Angel of Death
(Looking for a victim wherever he can)
He's the Angel of Death
(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)
Angel of Death
(He's a killer)
Playing in his twilight zone
He knows that he's the best
Creeping through the streets alone
Til he finds his victim's ex
Killing gives him pleasure
Sleeping gives him pain
The only time he's feeling good

Is when he's killed and killed again
When he's killed again, when he's killed again
When he's killed again, when he's killed again

When he's killed again, when he's killed again

Watch out

He's the Angel of Death

Angel of Death

He's the Angel of Death

Angel of Death

He's the Angel of Death

(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)

Angel of Death

(Looking for a victim wherever he can)

He's the Angel of Death

(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)

Angel of Death

(He's a killer)

He's the Angel of Death

(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)

Angel of Death

(Looking for a victim wherever he can)

He's the Angel of Death

(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)

Angel of Death

(He's a killer)

He's the Angel of Death

(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)

Angel of Death

(Looking for a victim wherever he can)

He's the Angel of Death

(Psycho Man, Psycho Man)

Angel of Death

(He's a killer)
