

Celebration Flow

Aaradhna

[Chorus]

I've been working too hard, finally I get my break
I must say it's a good day
But I got, been doing this forever
And now it's coming together
I must say it's a good day
Now I'm on my celebration flow
I'm on my celebration flow
Now I'm on my celebration flow
I'm on my celebration flow, yeah

So high is my pride, it's above the sky
You know it's about to go down tonight
We gonn let the good times roll
I'm letting go, not letting no dramas kill my life
Nothing can fade me, I'm in my zone
Except for my cup filled with alcohol
I'm here to party and lose control
I'm celebrating, this is celebration flow

[Chorus]

See the future like palm readers
Where the leaders live in a house of a lie like Don Chito
That's now, and still see non believers
And I hear what's great of covers affair for dying divas, what?
What kind of celebrating do you like to do?
A right to passage or the flashing lights that's blinding you
Haters you, wanna bring you down cause you trying to Have a good day like O'Shea back in '92
Giving myself a minus to, bounce like the beat I'm rhyming to
If I see you got the devil up inside of you
Name another rider who, will provide you with the truth
Or keep tighter than the bodies do
That's why they try to take him out like Chinese food
Cause of the special delivery, it's a sign of the fertility, dead like shvelry
Is it over your head? The way you feeling it?
Celebrating my God-given ability

[Chorus]
