

The Battle Of Time

John Frusciante

Seems to be away is peachy now
Feel like may be far at all
I've got these clothes to deceive me
I've been lost all along
You've got a mouth that's bigger
I've got a man on the side
You'll see my lie
You've got a town to speak to
You've got rented dye
I drive it around somewhere
Before I was alive
I was alive _____
You've got a mountain beneath you
You're always known in archives
I'll always have the side
All the times of hate
All around, this is here
You've got a running see-saw (it's me inside)
That's what I heard (it's the battle of time)
I have always felt fine (I know, hey)
I've nothing no-one nowhere
hey... (cool solo)

Version 2:
transcribed by Nadia :

Seems to be the way it'll be now
Feeling me before it all (?)
I've got these roads to deceive me
I've been lost on them all
You've got a mouth to feed
I've got a man on the side
You'll see my lie
You've got a town to speak to
You've got rented dye
I drive it around somewhere
Before I was alive
I was alive ... that means u can die
You've got a mountain beneath you

You're always known in archives
I'll always have the side
All the times of hate
All around, this is here
You've got a running see-saw (it's me inside)
That's what I heard (it's the battle of time)
I have always felt fine (I know, hey)
I've nothing no-one nowhere
hey... (cool solo)
