

One More Girl

**Patty Griffin**

I took off my iron smile
Because I found it weighed me down
Tomorrow when the world wakes up
I'll be in another town
You don't know what you want
At this moment, you think it's me
So you move your hand across my knee
Turn me into some novelty
Yes, I'm one more girl on the stage
Just one more ass that got stuffed in some jeans
Just one more day that you don't find true love
No, you don't know what it means
Did you ever take the time to Think about who I might be?
Where I've been or what I'm thinking or
Who I love or what I see?
One more girl on the road

You might pass on your way home
Someone's sister, someone's wife or Just some bitch who's probably Got no life and yes I'm
One more girl on the stage
Just one more ass that got stuffed into jeans
Just one more day that you don't find true love
No, you don't know what it means
One day, we'll be a pile of ashes
For the best of time it passes
So take your hand off my knee
Do you know what it means to be?
One more girl on the stage
Just one more ass that got stuffed in some jeans
Just one more day that you don't find true love
No, you don't know what it means
