Esthero

Sweet caress and tender mouth
Kissed her breast and then he found, he found
Forty days and forty nights, before this day
Said that she would always be the man, until she found herself
You can't stop her now Peace within, or has she seen?
(And you know she will find out) she's gonna find (She's not too far behind) Searching for the sheering heat Broke the glass, and stole the fate that she didn't earn
For the dress she wore that night, to find her there, she found herself
If he could see his way to daylight
