

Who Is It (Carry My Joy on the Left, Carry My Pain

Björk

His embrace a fortress
It fuels me and places
A skeleton of trust
Right beneath us
Bone by bone
Stone by stone

If you ask yourself patiently and carefully
Who is it, who is it, who is it?

Who is it
That never lets you down?
Who is it
That gave you back your crown?
And the ornaments are
They're goin' around
Now they're handin' it over, handin' it over

Who is it
That never lets you down?
Who is it
That gave you back your crown?
And the ornaments are
They're goin' around
Now they're handin' it over, handin' it over

He demands a closeness
We all have earned a lightness
Carry my joy on the left
Carry my pain on my right

If you ask yourself now patiently and carefully
Who is it?

Who is it
That never lets you down?
Who is it
That gave you back your crown?
The ornaments are
They're goin' around

And they're handin' it over, handin' it over

Who is it

That never lets you down?

Who is it

That gave you back your crown?

The ornaments are

They're goin' around

And they're handin' it over, handin' it over, handin' it over
