Zero Tolerance

Nailbomb

So you think you're the chosen one?
So you think you're the master race?
Racist violence ain't anarchyAre you trying to destroy
Anyone who's not like you?
But in the perfect world
You'll be the first to goYour leader is dead and gone
He, the one who never won
Go back and trace your history
You're no different than your enemyYou talk about pride
Then why do you need the hide?
Behind a mask, you never question
Your blind obsessionZero toleranceYou say you're going to kill the Jews
Asians, Latinos and blacks
Racially different, equally ignorantWhy don't you rethink?
It's happened before
Now it's happening again
We've come to the point ofZero tolerance
