

Love and Violence

Orchestral Manoeuvres In the Dark

She walks real slow
Talks like an animal
What am I
Supposed to doIve tried to explain
My hearts not a radio
I cant seem
To get to youFace to face
Tears on a heart of stone
When she talks
I walk awayIt seems to me
Its just a waste of time
These are words
I know, shes heard beforeShes the girl
Guess, Ill always know
And Ive tried, Ive tried
She always seems to knowThe morning after
The night before
I havent slept
For worryin'I know, I promised
To come see you
But now I have these
Things to doAll in all, it seems to me
You dont understand subtlety
Shall I make it obvious?
Do you really want me to make it up?She walks real slow
Like an animal
What am I
Supposed to doHer bedroom talk
Cuts like a razor blade
Every test
To put me throughShe doesnt talk
For days and days
And when she does
She always saysThat I act real slow
Behave like an animal
What am I
Supposed to doAnd Ive tried, Ive tried
I just can't let her go
Ive tried, Ive tried

But she always seems to know
We dont make sense
 Love and violence
 We dont make sense
Love and violence
 We dont make sense
 Love and violence
 We dont make sense
 Love and violence
