Diablo

Once I had a dream about life
Something we can't take for granted
Covenant in zero G Oh, here I am staring out with empty eyes
We're among the stars yet so alone
For years I've been so insincere
Making promises never for real again
I've caught myself from despair The dark deference for paranoia and fear Where do we go from here?
Take a look around you and you will see just what I mean
There are no signs to follow
Gods are no more there for you and me
And you don't need to hear the whole story
Just one chapter from this tragedy
If we stay here we may drown into the Ocean of Tranquility
The light can be so hard to find if we have faith only in death Once I had dream about life
Something we can't take for granted
Covenant in zero G Illuminati Once I had dream about life
Something we can't take for granted
Covenant in zero G Illuminati If we stay here we may drown into the Ocean of Tranquility
The light can be so hard to find if we have faith only in death Once I had dream about life
Something we can't take for granted
Covenant in zero G
Illuminati Once I had dream about life
Something we can't take for granted
Covenant in zero G Illuminati
