The Sacrifice

Symphony X

Your Eyes singing to me sweet lullabies
While you lay there in submission
Forbidden desire
Alone in the moonlight hearts afire
Burn away our inhibitionsWhen the stars lose their fire
And night steals the morning away
Forever and a day
I will stay, I will stay here with you my loveSacrifice a heart beat away from paradise
All my reasons given way to temptation
Fear and shame
Looking for someone else to blame
We're devoured by these foolish accusationsWith every fleeting breath I take Maybe our love was a mistake
Eternal life, I traded it for one moment beside youWhen the stars lose their fire
And night steals the morning away
Forever and a dayI will stay, I will stay here with you my loveWhen the stars lose their fire
And night steals the morning away
Forever and a dayWhen the stars lose their fire
And night takes the morning away
Forever and a day
I will stay, I will stay here with you,my love
