

Spit My Rage (feat. Jamey Jasta & Lord Ezec)

Terror

Don't forget I know where you come from
I watched it all, your every change
From nothing to something so fast
You nevre had a chance to learn a thing
And there's so many just like you
And it's always the same
Forever ends before it began
And now it's yourself that you hate
Spit my rage
In your face
Spit my rageAnd those so quick to judge
With a mouthful of shit you feed to everyone
Lost in contradiction
Now it's yourself you can't live withSpit my rage
In your face
Spit my rageCut back down to size
Lost in your own lies
I'll spit - spit my fucking rage
In your face
