

What I Wouldn't Give

Blake Shelton

Leave the radio on
Just to hear a voice other than mine
'Cause I can't bear to hear
The cold truth running through my mind 'Cause everything I did wrong
Just keeps haunting me, it won't let me be Lying here without you
Girl, I'm starting to see why you gave up on me What I wouldn't give just to go back when
You were in my life, I'd do it right this time
What I didn't do is give my whole heart to you
And that's why you're gone, I know I was wrong
And I'll never hold you again 'cause of what I wouldn't give It kills me to think
How much you tried to make things work
I wouldn't listen to you
All I would do is put myself first I took you for granted
And I pushed you away a little more each day
Somewhere inside this hell
I have seen my mistakes, oh, but now it's too late What I wouldn't give just to go back when
You were in life, I'd do it right this time
What I didn't do is give my whole heart to you
And that's why you're gone, I know I was wrong
And I'll never hold you again 'cause of what I wouldn't give What I didn't do is give my whole heart to you
And that's why you're gone, I know was wrong
And I'll never hold you again 'cause of what I wouldn't give
'Cause of what I wouldn't give
