A Skeletal Domain

Cannibal Corpse

Trapped beneath rotting remains
A slow decay of life takes its formWithered death and bone emerge
From cemeteries of the earth
Replacing all that is known from this worldTowering structures take shape
As more cities are laid to wasteSurvivors of this morbid fate
The reborn meek not live not dead
Are left to start a new
Misshapen half mutated
Not a zombie not a human
Evil creatures grewNot one thing left alive but them
The strongest will begin to reignA new society takes place
Where the way of the Cannibal
Rules in this skeletal domainA kingdom of the damnedCarnal war consuming them by Eating flesh for nourishment
Solution for a short-term survivalSlaughtered are the weakest first
Feeding those with evil thirst
As blood of the dead saturates the groundAgain the end has begun
Another kingdom will be damnedSurvivors of this morbid fate
The reborn meek not live not dead
Are left to start a newMisshapen and half mutated
Not a zombie not a human
Evil creatures grewNot one thing left alive but them
The strongest will begin to reignA new society takes place
Where the way of the cannibal
Rules in this skeletal domainSurvivors of this morbid fate
The reborn meek not live not dead
Are left to start a newMisshapen and half mutated
Not a zombie not a human
Evil creatures grewNot one thing left alive but them
The strongest will begin to reignA new society takes place
Where the way of the Cannibal
Rules in this skeletal domain
