One Second

Bloodflowerz

i close my eyes listen to a soft song an ancient melody of strange mysterywith your deep blue glance i venture a close dance come deep inside not just this nightone second[chorus:]
in confusion by a flash in the cycle of life and of death cannot stop the flood paving the way of my fate we are the blood, we are of the clay are you the god saving my day we cannot stop the flood, the way of our fatelove's rising brighter than all stars can higher than dragons fly but virgins are shyin one second all can change rearrange wake up the sleeper and touch me deeperone second[chorus:]
in confusion by a flash
cannot stop the flood paving the way of my fate
are you the god saving my day we cannot stop the flood, the way of our fate
