Music Must Be a Lady

R. Kelly

Music must be a lady
The way it makes me love to me
Me, ooh, you, music, music
I'm so amazed by your choice of melodies
That you used on me, Lady MusicWhen we make love it's like we're making love
With the same key, music, music must a lady
'Cause of the way you sing your melody
Woman, I'm overcome by your sexual energyMiss conductor, orchestration means just how to please you
In this room, music, I do for youI hear a drum roll as we lay, oh
When you grace my stage I can't find the words to say, except Music must be, must be a woman, oh
You're my anthem, you're the reason why I danceMusic, Mrs. Music, Miss Music
I wanna make your body
Sing songs of joy and happiness
Write your words in my bedMiss Music said I'll never fall in love, never ever fall in love
Now here I am in love, so, so, so in love with you
Miss Music, this love making is so unique
Go on and let it break out over me like a quiet [Incomprehensible] beatMusic, said I celebrate you
And I honored you and I salute you
And I sing my heart out to youMusic, 'cause you deserve it
And I would like to do some things to youMusic, so get ready, Miss Music
Oh, get ready, darling
'Cause I'm about to add harmony to your life
A love making duet, just to be precise, babeMusic, hello sweet soprano, Miss Music
I want you to meet Mister Tenor
And I love your music
As a matter of fact I'm quite a big fanMusic, Mrs. Music, Miss Music, Mrs. Music
