

Centre Of Everywhere

JTR

Looking out the window, hear the sounds of the phone and i wonder how it starts look from where you are.

It's in the middle of the night we're the only ones awake, I'm so tired of the sound "

I wanna get away" So tell me what you're dreaming of.

These days, we can run, we can run out to the middle of nowhere, the centre of everywhere.

We don't care, we can run, we can run out to the middle of nowhere, the centre of everywhere.

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh.

In the middle of nowhere, somewhere with you.

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh.

In the middle of nowhere, somewhere.

No one else would understand, what it feels to be a ghost.

Ways far in through your hands, I will make you home.

Your sweating in your bums, it's okay 'couse so am I.

Don't be nervous if we fall, I will grab this guy.

So tell me what your dreaming of.

These days, we can run, we can run out.

To the middle of nowhere, the centre of everywhere.

And we don't care, we can run, we can run out to the middle of nowhere, the centre of evrywhere.

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh.

In the middle of nowhere, somewhere with you.

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh.

In the middle of nowhere.

That's my heart broke to die, cut my wings but I fly.

We will fly.

Nail our feet to the ground, but they can't hold us down.

Hold us down.

These days, we can run, we can run out.

To the middle of nowhere, the centre of everywhere.

And we don't care.

We can run, we can run out.

To the middle of nowhere, the centre of everywhere.

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh.

In the middle of nowhere, somewhere with you.

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh.

In the middle of nowhere, somewhere. (End)
