

Perfume-V

Pavement

Fun for an hour when the hour's gone
Can one trick night for forty days?
And in my bed at the break of dawn
She shivered like a vein slashed bright and new
She's got the radio active
And it makes me feel okay, I don't feel okay
She's got the radio active
And it makes me feel okay, I don't feel okay
Grip-force the vial, strip the locks
Smash the set and slash the beds
And when it looks like a wife's ex-plot
We'll cover all the rugs with cheap perfume
She's got the radio active
And it makes me feel okay, I don't feel okay
She's got the radio active
And it makes me feel okay, I don't feel okay
