Captured

Bic Runga

I want you when you are close to me
I want you never to be far
I know you have laid a trap for me
Yes, I know you, but not as who you areBlack on the ground, I am still as a stone
Whatever changed my love to despair?
Light through the clouds trapped the scent of a soul
In a moment, my love, I am captured, capturedI want you when you are close to me
I want you never to be far
I know you have laid a trap for me
Yes, I know you, but not as who you areBlack on the ground, I am still as a stone
Whatever changed my love to despair?
Light through the clouds trapped the scent of a soul
In a moment, my love, I am captured, captured
