

Banana

The Pop Ups

OH BANANA where do you come from? I come from a beautiful plant that grows under the hot hot sun I was picked by a man from a beautiful plant that grows under the hot hot sun I was put in a squeaky basket put there by a man who picked me from a beautiful plant that grows under the hot hot sun I rode on a bumpy truck inside a squeaky basket
that was put there by a man
that grows under the hot hot sun I sailed on a giant ship away from a bumpy truck
that grows under the hot hot sun I was picked up by crane aboard a giant ship
that grows under the hot hot sun I was put on a choo choo train picked up by crane
aboard a giant ship
that grows under the hot hot sun I was bought by your mama waited in the market from a choo choo train picked up by a crane
who picked from a beautiful plant

oh banana so glad that you are here I've come a long long long long long long way to say hello Oh Banana.....
