

The Beautiful Steppe

Batzorig Vaanchig

The sky stretches so wide, so beautifully
The steppe overwhelms me with its vastness
I'm on horseback like a true nomad
On my way to a herder's white felt ger. A long song reaches so far, so wonderfully
A herder harmonizing with the nature
A mother camel weeps from the music
A horse-head fiddle softens her world. Mongolia, Mongolia
It's an amazing country
Mongolia, Mongolia
Such an exciting country
It welcomes me, awes me and draws me back
