Xeno

I look around at the world around me
And I wonder where we went wrong
Lost souls, slowly losing faith
Longing for anything to hold onto, mm-hmm

Now I don't have all the answers but I know this much is true
You got to have something to believe in
And I believe in you

Instead of saying I'm lucky, saying I'm blessed
I changed my life for something simple as that
Holding you close, when you look at me
Long slow kisses so tenderly

These are the things I believe
The things I believe

Sky above and the ground beneath us
Walking with your hand in mine
That's all I need for me know
Everything is gonna be alright

Instead of saying I'm lucky, saying I'm blessed
I changed my life for something simple as that
Holding you close, when you look at me
Long slow kisses so tenderly

These are the things I believe
The things I believe

The things I believe, yeah

I was lost, no direction
But you came into my life
You gave me love like I've never known
You're the reason why

Instead of saying I'm lucky, saying I'm blessed
And changed my life for something simple as that
Holding you close, when you look at me

Long slow kisses so tenderly

When you say that you love me and turn out the light
Nothing in this world ever felt so right
The sun coming up on a brand new day
Your smile it shines upon your face

These are the things I believe
The things I believe

These are the things I believe
The things I believe
