

Danger Line

Avenged Sevenfold

My sixteen, locked and loaded, all fear has been aborted
You say the words and my weapon is drawn
This one could be my last time, some people call it war crime
I may be staring at a lethal sight to die Nothing shocks you like a bullet hole
Leaving my fear on the danger line
Suffering, a man should never know
Leaving my faith on the danger line I do this for my family, my daughter loves her daddy
Too many talk down on things they don't know
With colors never faded, reckless and unabated
They may take me but never take us all, I'll crawl Nothing shocks you like a bullet hole
Leaving my fear on the danger line
Suffering, a man should never know
Leaving my faith on the danger line I know what you're thinking, I've been there before
So think of the times, the time we spent laughing away
So think of the times at home, life without a care Now I find myself in my own blood
(Never thought I'd lay in my own blood)
The damage done is far beyond repair
I never put my faith in up above
(Never had much faith in up above)
But now I'm hoping someone's there Never meant to leave this world alone
I never meant to hurt the ones who cared
And though this time I thought we'd just grow old
You know, no one said it's fair Tell my baby girl that it's alright
I've sung my last song today
Remind the Lord to leave His light on for me
I'm free

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>