

Find Rest

Dara Maclean

Life was formed in Your hands
You alone tell my story
All my hours like sand
I surrender all Through the battle I'll sing
Lord, I know You are for me
My whole heart I will bring
I surrender all In You I find rest, I find rest, in You I find rest
In You I find rest, I find rest, in You I find rest
In my deepest of fears
In my hours of weakness
From an ocean of tears
I surrender all For Your word is my sword
And Your arms are my fortress
I know victory is Yours
I surrender all Though the darkness falls
And the storms are raging
I will find my shelter in You, in You
Fount of mercy new
God of love unchanging
Now my heart is resting in You
Life was formed in Your hand
You alone tell my story
All my hours like sand
I surrender all
