Reincremation

Suffocation

Cremate the human race!
The population has been reduced, a world condemned to horrid death.
And the blood of others heads their saviour, an artificial homicide.
The strong and feevle, all will die.
Nothing left to say! Warmongers have to pay!
RE - INCREMATION!
Bodies rise from the ground, twice as twisted as before.
Turning the life that we know now, to the one with knowledge but no = laws.
Legal butchery will destroy this so called structure.
We want the ones with life, let=B9s begin the mass cremation!
Genetic bonds are broken, flesh ripped and torn,
Look what=B9s become of you, will you ever meet your maker?
No, you=B9ll suffer =8Ctil demise,
To the ones with knowledge, primitive actions will suffice,
Tied down to the altar, we begin the sacrifice.
Rancid death completes self - immolation, your organs re - designed!
Your brain=B9s been under siege since you died, false life has taken = over!
