Black Veil

Straight Line Stitch

Show yourself, show me your face, show me who you really are
Don't tell me the reason why you hide yourself from me is because you think that we are similar-uuuaahhhhh-
With blood on your hands, you are unclean
With blood on your hands, you are uncleanPreying those who are depraved-
When yourself you know you can not be saved
You can not be savedSo many unshed tears to undergo a pain so severe
You try to take me by surprise I see it right through your eyes
Wicked malicious are blameless & faultlessForgive you how can I
I can't even forgive myself
What you, you take... you take from me
What you, you take... you take from meI know who you are I see right through you the real you
Please give me something to pull myself through this
Cant you see that it's been so long overdue
(Say) Say it's for the last time & never again
Lie & tell me I'm blind never againWhy would you do this? you could never explain this.
Why would you do this? Never again.For the last time
Forgive you how can I
Forgive you how can I
Forgive you how can I
Fogive you
